"Profitable Trends
in Holiday Designs"

Kevin Ylvisaker, CAFA, AIFD, PFCI

Kevin is from Mukwonago, Wisconsin who comes to the floral industry with a background in art that includes a concentration in sculpture and weaving. His involvement in the floral industry over the past 30 years has seen him travel the world designing and teaching ~ including Japan, Singapore, Taiwan, England, and Canada. In various capacities from consulting, designing and judging with floral clubs, associations, organizations, wholesale houses, and retailers, Kevin is busy but finds time to be part of the design teams for Inaugurations, and the Tournament of Roses. He is featured in numerous Industry publications, videos and shows including Smithers Oasis. With his talent, expertise, style and charisma, Kevin is highly sought after as a freelance designer and instructor ~ CAFA is thrilled that he is part of our event.
